BAE Systems Publishes 2017 Annual Report and Corporate Responsibility Summary

At BAE Systems we are proud of what we do and how we do it – from developing innovative products and services and investing in our people and future workforce, to giving our customers the best possible service. We report on our Corporate Responsibility (CR) performance in our Annual Report with more detail in our CR Summary.

In these resources, we demonstrate the progress the Company is making in its CR agenda. They focus on our strategy and performance in key areas of safety, our people, community investment, business conduct, environmental performance and suppliers.

Our 2017 highlights include:

- Our recordable accident rate was reduced by 3%
- Progress in developing our people with a diverse and inclusive strategy to drive innovation and enhance the performance of our employees
- Engaging with our communities by supporting projects and employee volunteering
- Continued progress in engaging employees and developing the Company's Business Conduct programme
- Our total greenhouse gas emissions continued to fall
- Our engagement with suppliers to support our businesses and the roll out of the Supplier Principles
